

S.P.A.G.

HOMOPHONES

Now you're going to try the first SPAG - Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar.
Don't worry though, the SPAGs for Crazy Creatives are... Crazy!
Homophones are words that sound the same, but have different meanings.

Fill in the alternative words for the homophones below:

Now circle the correct homophone in the sentences below

1. (Who's/Whose) coming to the party, and (who's/whose) jacket is this?
2. I'd like a (piece/peace) of cake, please, after a long day I need (piece/peace) and quiet.
3. Turn (right/write), then (right/write) your name at the top of the page.
4. (Which/Witch) book did you choose for your report on the scary (which/witch)?
5. The forest is home to the grizzly (bear/bare), where she decided to (bear/bare) her soul and tell the truth.
6. There is (no/know) way I'm missing this concert! Do you (no/know) which band is playing?
7. The garden is full of (flowers/flours), which she admired before sifting the (flower/flour) for the cake recipe.
8. (Two/To/Too) cats sat by the window, and I wanted (two/to/too) join them. But having (two/to/too) many cats can be chaotic.
9. (Their/They're/There) planning a trip (their/they're/there) next summer, and (their/they're/there) going to visit all the historical sites.
10. The dog wags (its/it's) tail when (its/it's) happy to see its owner.
11. Do you know (where/were) the books (where/were) placed after we cleaned the room?
12. (Your/You're) going to love (your/you're) new shoes when you see them. 